Our Mission

... to promote wellness, self-sufficiency, and prosperity in our community through cultural teachings and environmental stewardship, and by building and maintaining an accountable government that motivates, inspires, and provides opportunities for the Vuntut Gwitchin.

About the Role

Reporting to the Mental Wellness and Addictions Program Manager, the position provides counselling, support and advocacy services to citizens struggling with mental health and/or addictions.

Our ideal candidate possesses the following qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in psychology, child and youth care, or related.
- Considerable experience delivering Mental Wellness and Addictions services and programs; in an indigenous community is an asset.
- Experience building partnerships with community resources and external contacts to promote the wellbeing of families and citizens.

Supporting you along the way

We believe that a rewarding career is not only good for our employees, but it also leads to better outcomes for our clients, workplace and the community. That's why we are committed to providing you with a competitive salary, health benefits, and a retirement plan. Beyond compensation, you will have the opportunity to make meaningful connections and work on initiatives that make a real difference in people's lives.

For job details and/or to submit your application, email Human Resources at: employment@vgg.ca

Hiring preference will be given to Vuntut Gwitchin First Nation citizens.

While we appreciate all applications, only those selected for further consideration will be contacted.
